

THE COMPETITION'S TOUGH

But hey, that's just fine with us. We feel confident that after you compare our printing company to the competition, you'll come to one conclusion—we're the winner!

Compare our prices, our delivery time, our quality. And don't forget about the intangibles (the things that really set us apart) like our experience, attitude, enthusiasm and expertise. You'll sense these qualities the minute you walk in our front door.

Yes, the competition's tough—real tough. In fact, it's probably never been tougher. But it's the competition that has made us better printers today than we were yesterday and why we'll be better printers tomorrow than we are today.

Ben Holden Says . . .

Never Stop Courting

- Never stop courting. Marriage only gives you a chance to court without interruption.
- Never let romance want. The benediction at the wedding doesn't end romance. It only gives you a chance to be permanently romantic.
- Never allow both of you to get angry at the same time.
- Never talk at one another, either alone or in company.
- Never speak loudly to one another unless the house is on fire.
- Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain that a fault has been committed and then always speak lovingly.
- Never taunt a mistake.
- Never make a remark at the expense of each other. It is meanness.
- Never part for a day without loving words to think of during absence.
- Never meet without a loving welcome.
- Never let the sun go down upon any anger or grievance.
- Never let any fault you have committed go by until you have frankly confessed it and asked forgiveness.
- And never, ever forget the happy hours of early love.
